The court is assured by the learned counsel for SDMC that further action shall be carried out as per law as soon as possible."

3. Since the same was not done, the contempt petition has been filed.

4. The respondent MCD has filed a status report, wherein it has been stated that pursuant to the directions, the respondent has booked the illegal and unauthorized construction and after following due process of law, has passed a demolition order dated 05.07.2021.

The learned counsel for the respondent MCD agrees with the said position.

6. Hence, in view of the order passed by the ATMCD, I am of the view that there is no intentional and malafide violation of the judgment dated 09.12.2021 as the respondent MCD had taken all action as per law but in view of the order dated 01.02.2023, no demolition action can be carried out.

For the said reasons, the demarcation cannot be carried by the respondent.

The fact that the order dated 11.10.2019 was passed, the same was not acted upon by the respondent for which the petitioner had to file the contempt petition, is not an acceptable state of affairs. The respondent has been cautioned to be more careful in future and communicate with the petitioner by giving them in writing the reasons as well as the details available with the respondent as a result of which demarcation cannot be carried out.
