ORDER

% 21.03.2018 The report has been received from the Jail Superintendent, Central Jail No. 11, Mandoli, Delhi. The same is completely unsatisfactory and shows complete non-application of mind.

It is stated that the appellant has been allowed to work as a labour in the kitchen of the Jail since 26.10.2017. The report does not disclose as to whether or not the claim of the appellant that he knows the work of stitching is correct and it is not explained that why his skill has not been put to use, if that is true. Any other unskilled prisoner could be allotted the work of labour in the kitchen. It is not even stated in the report as to whether the work of stitching is available in jail No. 2 or not and if not, whether the same is available in any other jail.

The Superintendent of Prison, Central Jail No. 11, Mandoli, Delhi is directed to address all the aforesaid aspects in his further status report, which be filed at the earliest.

On the next date, the Superintendent, Central Jail No. 11, Mandoli, Delhi should personally remain present in Court.

List on 6th April, 2018.

Copy of this order be sent to the concerned Jail Superintendent.
