7. The applicant was arrested on 06.03.2022 and is in custody since then.

9. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is a law-abiding citizen and has been falsely implicated in the present case.

10. He submits that the applicant was not present during the alleged commission of the offence and she has not been named in the present FIR.

11. He further submits that no specific role has been attributed to the applicant and in such circumstances, prima facie, the alleged offences are not made out against the applicant.

12. He submits that the victim has given contrary versions of the events which makes his complaint and statement under Section 164 of the CrPC unreliable.

13. He submits that co-accused person, namely Naina Rana, was granted bail by this Court by order dated 13.10.2022 due to no active role having been assigned to her. He further contends that this Court, by separate orders dated 19.02.2024, has also granted bail to co-accused persons, namely, Sandhya, Dharmender and Vicky Anand.

14. He submits that the charges framed against co-accused Naina Rana, and the role attributed to her, are the same as that of the applicant, whereby the applicant is entitled for bail on the ground of parity.

18. He further submits that the allegations are also corroborated by the statement given by Maneka under Section 164 of the CrPC.

19. It is pointed out by the parties that the evidence of the victim was recorded by the learned Juvenile Justice Board on 21.04.2023 and before the learned Juvenile Justice Board, the victim has denied that he has given any complaint to the police in regard to the incident.

20. The statement of the victim was recorded by the learned Trial Court on 25.11.2023, where he stated that four persons had misbehaved with his wife Maneka, which led to a quarrel. He alleged that those persons hit him on the head with a flower pot due to which he became unconscious. He claimed that Maneka called his elder brother. Thereafter, he was taken to Safdarjung Hospital and he is not aware of anything that happened thereafter. He further claimed that police officials have taken his signatures and thumb impressions on the blank paper.

21. It is thus, apparent that the victim has turned hostile. It is settled law that the statement of a witness is only a piece of evidence, and for the purpose of conviction, the corroborated part of the evidence of a hostile witness regarding the commission of the offence is to be treated as admissible (Ref. 24. The allegation against the applicant is that she was present when the victim was beaten. It is alleged that the applicant had wrongfully confined Maneka along with other co-accused persons. It is also alleged that the applicant had herself given beatings to Maneka.

25. However, in the present circumstances, it cannot be said with certainty that the applicant was aware that the victim would be beaten and injured in the manner that has been alleged. It is also not alleged that the fatal blow to the victim was given by the applicant.

26. It is also relevant to note that no specific role has been attributed to the applicant and her role, in any case, is not graver than that of co-accused Naina Rana who has already been granted bail by this Court.

27. Admittedly, the applicant is a family member of the victim Maneka. In such circumstances, allegations in relation to wrongful confinement of Maneka would be tested during the trial.
