ORDER

% 28.02.2025

1. The present application under Section 439 read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 seeks grant of regular bail in the proceedings arising from FIR No. 405/2015 dated 28th April, 2015, under Sections 420/467/468/471/120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, registered at P.S. Vivek Vihar, District East Delhi.

2. Briefly stated, the case of the Prosecution is as follows:

2.1 A complaint was lodged by one Mr. Satya Prakash Aggarwal alleging that he purchased a property bearing No. A-130, 02nd Floor, Vivek Vihar, 3 Delhi, from one Anita Thukral on 04th June, 2013 for INR 1,05,00,000/-. He further alleged that on 22nd April, 2015, he received a call from his neighbour, informing him that a bank official had visited the property "CrPC"

Upon inquiry, the Complainant discovered that the aforesaid property had been mortgaged with the State Bank of India,<sup>4</sup> which was taking action due to the default in repayment of the loan secured against the property.

2.2 The Complainant further alleged that accused persons, in connivance with each other, had transferred the subject property among family members through gift deeds and registered sale deeds, and subsequently, transferred it to the Applicant. The Applicant then took a loan from SBI by mortgaging the subject property, and later sold it to Anita Thukral, who in turn, sold it to the Complainant. He further alleged that a perusal of the documents filed by SBI revealed that all the accused persons had acted in conspiracy, fabricating documents to obtain a loan from SBI, and to transfer the property among themselves, with the sole intent of defrauding the Complainant. This led to the registration of the impugned FIR.

2.3 During investigation, none of the accused persons, including the Applicant, cooperated in the investigation and absconded. On 6th February, 2017, the Applicant, along with co-accused Monika Soni, Vilash Babbar, and Kashmiri Lal, was declared a Proclaimed Offender, while Navendu Babbar was similarly declared on 26th November, 2018. 2.4 Investigation further revealed that all the accused persons have been implicated in another case bearing No. RCBA1/2018/A0016, registered at PS: CBI, ACB, Mumbai, under Sections 120B read with Sections 409/420/467/468/471 IPC and Section 13(2) read with Section 13(1) and (d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.<sup>5</sup> The Applicant was in judicial custody in the said case, and was subsequently presented before the trial "SBI"

As a result, notices were issued to the banks, and the account statements were obtained, revealing the transfer of funds by the Applicant to other accounts. The investigation revealed that several companies had been registered in the name of the Applicant, who, in collusion with other co-accused, had misrepresented the financial data of the companies, disposed of mortgaged properties, and sold them to Anita Thukral. 2.6 Both the Applicant and his sister, co-accused Monika Soni, are implicated in the crime of selling the mortgaged property to Anita Thukral. Furthermore, on 21st August, 2013, the Applicant submitted an affidavit to SBI, asserting that he was the rightful owner and in possession of the subject property and had neither sold nor executed any General Power of Attorney (GPA) or created any charge or mortgage over it. However, it was revealed that the Applicant had, in fact, sold the property to Anita Thukral on 11th July, 2011.

Applicant's Case

3. Against the above background, counsel for the Applicant raises following grounds seeking grant of regular bail:

3.1 Anita Thukral and her husband are the sole beneficiaries of the alleged transactions and both have defrauded the Complainant.

Subsequently, they have become Prosecution witnesses, and the entire case of the Respondent relies solely on their statements. 3.2 The Applicant has been in custody since 24th July, 2023, and has This is a digitally signed order.

Respondent's Case

4. Mr. Amit Ahlawat, APP for the State, on the other hand, opposes the bail application, and makes the following submissions:

4.1 The offence committed by the Applicant is of a serious nature. The accused persons have also defrauded the banks by submitting forged and fabricated documents to secure loans against a mortgage. 4.2 The Applicant had earlier absconded and was declared as a PO, indicating that he is a flight risk. Should he be granted bail, there is a possibility that he may abscond again.

4.3 The Applicant has also been involved in Case No. RCBA1/2018/A0016 dated 27th June, 2018 under Section 120B read with Sections 409/420/467/468/471 IPC and Section 13(2) read with Sections 13(1) & (d) PC Act registered at P.S. ### Analysis

5. The Court has duly considered the contentions presented by both parties. The Prosecution has completed the investigation and the chargesheet stands filed. Therefore, the possibility of tampering of evidence can be ruled out.

7. It is noted that the Applicant has been in custody since 27th July, 2023. It is well established through a catena of judgments of the Supreme Court that the object of granting bail is neither punitive nor preventative. The primary aim sought to be achieved by bail is to secure the attendance of the accused person at the trial.<sup>6</sup> Having regard to the aforementioned facts, the criminal antecedents, and without delving into the merits of the case, the Applicant shall be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond for a sum of INR 2,00,000/- with two sureties each of the like amount, subject to the satisfaction of the Trial Court/Duty MM, on the following conditions:

a. The Applicant shall cooperate in any further investigation as and See also: Sanjay Chandra v. CBI, (2012) 1 SCC 40; Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation, (2022) 10 SCC 51.
